

Kansas Professional Communicators 2007 Scholarship Winners

Kansas Professional Communicators honored four scholarship recipients at the conference Patron/Scholarship Luncheon May 5 in Dodge City.

Four $500 scholarships are presented annually to communication students from four universities: Fort Hays State, Kansas State, Wichita State and the University of Kansas. These scholarships are made possible through KPC patrons and other contributions.

Recipients are:

- Abels-Ankeny-Sadowski Scholarship

Michael Hammett is a senior at Fort Hays State University, majoring in communications with an emphasis on information, networking and telecommunications. He has been a staff writer for the FHSU University Leader for more than two years and has also worked for KNDY and Eagle Radio. Next fall he will be the editor of the University Leader.

- KPC Scholarship

Roni Jean Ayalla is a senior at Wichita State University majoring in communications. She is a marketing communications intern at the Arthritis Foundation, and an interactive communications assistant for WSU's Office of University Relations. She has also worked as a media relations assistant.

- Mamie Boyd Scholarship

- Past Presidents Scholarship

Jyl Unruh is a junior at the University of Kansas, majoring in both journalism and psychology. She is currently a copy editor for the University Daily Kansan and The Skol Hol'er, a newsmagazine geared to residents of KU's scholarship halls. She is also vice president of Sellards Scholarship Hall.
